

CHAUTAUQUA

Marshall, Aug. 31-Sept. 6

A Program That Demands Respect

- 1 DUNBAR SEXTETTE
SIX WINSOME GIRLS.
- WALTER MANSELL
DRAMATIC ORATOR.
- THOS. McCLARY
THE FUNNY MAN.
- 2 WEATHERWAX MALE QUARTETT
SNAPPY AND CLEVER.
- BELLE KEARNEY
GREAT WOMAN ORATOR.
- JAMES FRANCIS O'DONNELL
MONOLOGUE ARTIST.
- 3 CLARE BOWERS COMPANY
CLASSIC VOICE AND VIOLIN.
- THOS. BROOKS FLETCHER
- HON. ARTHUR K. PECK
ILLUSTRATED STORY OF THE
GOVERNMENT LIFE SAVING SERVICE.

Some
of the Reasons
Why

The program outlined here will be found to abound with specialists. Especial care has been exercised to provide for all proper tastes.

If the taste is for music it will be found here in rich profusion. If it is for intellectual things, here they are.

The most notable addition will be found in the entertainment features. Never were so many entertainment numbers of so high class assembled on one chautauqua program.

- 4 WHITE ROSE ORCHESTRA
SEVEN PLAYERS—FEATURE PROGRAM.
- WILLIAM EDGAR GEIL
- HON. FRANCIS J. HENEY
- 5 THAVIU'S INTERNATIONAL BAND...
30 — SPLENDID ARTISTS — 30
GRAND OPERA
AT NIGHT—ACCOMPANIED BY BAND
- 6 HEIMERDINGER ENTERTAINERS
POPULAR PROGRAM.
- GARRETA'S TRAINED
ANIMALS AND BIRDS.
- EX-GOV. E. W. HOCH
- 7 PUGH-RINER COMPANY
CATCHY MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT.
- CHAS. L. SEASHOLES
GREAT BAPTIST PREACHER
- JOY NIGHT
THE TIME OF YOUR LIFE

WATCH THIS PAPER NEXT WEEK
FOR ANNOUNCEMENT OF OUR BALLOON ASCENSION
TO BE GIVEN SOON

County News

MALTA BEND

Dr. Brown was transacting business in Marshall last Thursday. Mrs. Kate Ferguson who has been visiting her niece, Mrs. Sam Tobin, for some time returned to her home at Oak Grove, last Wednesday afternoon.

Sherman Houston was attending to business in Marshall Saturday. Mrs. Ethel Thornton and son, Labon, went to Kansas City Saturday evening returning Monday morning.

Mrs. John Moritz was shopping in Marshall Saturday.

Mrs. Kate Ferguson of Oak Grove, Sam Tobin, Jennie Payne and Frank Clyde were dinner guests of Mrs. Herbert Ransberger at Mt. Leonard last Wednesday.

Miss Beulah Sappington of Marshall is here visiting her cousin, Miss Leah Thornton.

Mrs. Charlie DeMoss was shopping in Marshall last Saturday.

Mrs. John Nye was a Marshall visitor last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ransberger of Mt. Leonard were Sunday guests of Everett Fulton and wife.

Mrs. Uterland and Miss Olive Booth of Grand Pass were guests of Perry Wilson and family Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. Malter of near Lexington spent Sunday with relatives here.

Mrs. George Humphrey and children returned home from Mayview Sunday morning after a week's visit with her mother, Mrs. Riley.

Miss Ruth Humphrey of Grand Pass is visiting her brother, Geo. Humphrey, and family.

J. J. Wheelon came down from Dover Sunday evening for a visit with her mother.

Mrs. Butler and daughter went Waverly Sunday morning.

Lee Bryan returned to his home in Marshall Saturday.

Wm. Brown was transacting business in Marshall Saturday.

Mrs. Cook and daughter are visiting friends in Slater.

Grover Kite and Miss Bonnie Byrd were visiting in our city Sunday.

W. O. Ballew spent several days in Kansas City last week.

Mrs. Fred Bradshaw and Mrs. Walker Morton were shopping in Marshall last Monday.

Andy Plattner was transacting business in Marshall last Wednesday.

Will Hanley was transacting business in Marshall last Tuesday.

Mrs. Sam Green of Mayview is here visiting her parents, V. Bradshaw and wife and other relatives and friends.

Wife Got Tip Top Advice.

"My wife wanted me to take our boy to the doctor to cure an ugly boil," writes D. Frankel, of Stroud, Okla. "I said put Bucklen's Arnica Salve on it. She did so, and it cured the boil in a short time." Quickest healer of Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Corns, Bruises, Sprains, Swellings. Best Pile cure on earth. Try it. Only 25c at P. H. Franklins.

BLUE LICK

Intended for last week. Miss Cora Luse returned home Saturday from a few days visit relatives at Napton.

Our editor and daughter made a pleasant call at the picnic Tuesday.

Miss Linnie Dennis returned to her home near Napton after a visit with her sister, Mrs. I. J. Holden.

August Niemcier and Clyde Simons of Hardeman passed thru our burg Tuesday.

Will Smith of Nelson was a dinner guest of F. W. York Tuesday.

Miss Marguerite Downs is visiting her brother, Arthur Downs of Corder this week.

J. J. Scott, wife and daughter, Frances, visited Alonzo Zeigle on Tuesday and attended the picnic.

GLENWOOD

Intended for last week. Mrs. Murphy and two sons visited her daughter, Mrs. Charley Gaus Tuesday.

Gus Krause and family visited his wife's parents Sunday.

Mrs. Charley Thomas spent Wednesday night with her son, John Thomas.

Mrs. C. J. Lemier's mother who is visiting her is sick.

Will Connor and little daughter Anna Bell, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Connor Friday.

Miss Hannah Kuts spent Wednesday night with her cousin, Miss Ella Lemier.

Children Cry
FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

BUCK EYE

Intended for last week. William Pinkard while down in the pasture with his grand-father was butted by a cow, knocked one tooth out and knocked several out of place.

A crowd of young people called at Frank Pinkard's Thursday evening and was entertained by music.

A nice rain fell on Buckeye last Sunday.

Mrs. Herbert Stephens, Miss Minnie Irwin, Miss Viola Barns, Miss Ruby Givens were visiting Mrs. B. F. White Sunday.

Falls Victim to Thieves

S. W. Bends, of Coal City, Ala., has a justifiable grievance. Two thieves stole his health for twelve years. They were a liver and kidney trouble. Then Dr. King's New Life Pills throttled them. Now he's well. Unrivalled for Constipation, Malaria, Headache, Dyspepsia. 25c at P. H. Franklins.

GRAND PASS

Mrs. Ella Reynolds and son, Grover, of Slater visited Mrs. Jennie Riley and family in Mayview last week.

John Howard went to North Dakota last week to engage in work there.

Jess Edwards was guest of E. Farris in Marshall last Wednesday.

Miss Dorothy Renwick and niece Helen Gould, spent this week with Mrs. Lyde Bell in Marshall.

Miss Lizzie Shaul of Odessa spent the past week with her aunt Miss Laura Webb and other relatives.

Miss Nannie Cunniff of Lexington is visiting friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Earp and children of Concordia visited relatives and friends here this week.

Rev. Morrison of Higginsville, preached in the Christian church Sunday in Rev. Coggins' place.

Miss Clarice Williams and her brother, Eric of Waverly visited Mr. and Mrs. Edmans Sunday. The many friends of Eric Williams will be pleased to know that he is recovering from the awful burns he received from an explosion of gasoline. Although he is not sufficiently able yet to attend to his regular business yet he is up and all are glad to see him.

The Sunday School picnic of the Christian Church last Thursday in Mrs. Plegars beautiful grove was largely attended by their own school and the others here too as all were invited. Everyone enjoyed the pleasant hours spent together.

Mr. Lunbeck is quite sick with the fever.

A large number of men from here contemplated assisting in every way possible for the proposed new road going through here.

If the great Santa Fe Trail is fully followed their hopes will be realized as all the old settlers here say the Santa Fe Trail is directly thru Grand Pass and Malta Bend and Marshall. May success be ours.

On Monday afternoon we received a bountiful rain that will do the corn so much good. Also fill the cisterns that were empty.

Mr. Grady, Mr. Shusher and several gentlemen from Lexington who are interested in the new state road on the Santa Fe Trail arrived in their auto and were the guests of F. C. McReynolds one day last week.

SALINE POINT

Corn is looking reasonably well considering the dry, hot weather we had. We will probably have two-thirds of a crop in this community.

Threshing is over with and the wheat disposed of at this place.

Miss Mary Dilley and nephew, James Copeland, visited the latter's mother, Mrs. Ben Copeland, near Slater this week.

Hal V. Gwinn, of near Slater visited friends here Saturday and Sunday and went to Kansas City Monday.

The ladies will give an ice cream supper at Rich Chapel church on Saturday night, August 5.

G. W. Delley has been laid up with inflammatory rheumatism for the past week.

C. V. Davis of Marshall was in our midst last week trying to do some collecting.

Boyd Stephens of the Ayres neighborhood was seen dashing around on our good roads quite often lately.

An ice cream social was given at the home of Charlie Marksberry's last week. Quite an enjoyable time was reported.

Joe Martin last week brought us in a freak pullet which he said C. C. Kitchen of near Ayres had raised. The chicken has always been deformed. It walks perfectly upright and presents a strange appearance. While no defect is visible it has no doubt a deformity which causes it to walk in this manner to keep balanced.

Are You?
A Woman?

TAKE

CARDUI

The
Woman's Tonic

ARROW ROCK

Henry Morris and wife of Elliott Station were guests several days this week at the home of T. B. Morris.

Henry Muir of St. Louis is shaking hands with his many friends here this week.

Mrs. Mead of Slater is a guest this week at the home of June Martin.

Mrs. Anna Miner is visiting this week at the home of T. B. Morris.

Mrs. S. E. Fisher and Miss Nora Diggs were dinner guests at the home of Gene Vanarsdell Wednesday.

Mrs. D. L. Watts was a visitor Tuesday and Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Parilee Bingham.

D. Lawless and wife, Pres Eades and daughter, Pauline, Mrs. Marvin Yowel and Seth Diggs went to the M. W. A. picnic Thursday in the Lawless auto.

Watson Diggs and wife left Friday morning for Lamar where they will be gone several weeks as Mr. Diggs and brother, Will have a large crop of hay to cut near that place.

Clark Swinney and Joe Hillen, two of our first-class farmers, were among the crowd in town Saturday afternoon.

W. P. Lawless and wife of Cooper county were shopping here Saturday.

Frank Watts, wife and mother of Howard county came over Saturday afternoon and remained until Sunday visiting relatives.

W. B. Gibson of Cooper county helped to swell the crowd in town Saturday afternoon.

C. P. Hudson and wife of Blackwater were visiting friends here Saturday afternoon.

Miss Blanch Townsend of the county was a week end guest of her aunt, Mrs. Parilee Bingham.

Albert Hoy is visiting this week at the home of his father, A. B. Hoy in Marshall.

Will Richman left the first of the week for Montana to visit his sister.

Misses Ruth and Annie Dickson of Hardeman were guests Saturday night and Sunday at the home of their uncle, T. H. Dickson.

The household goods of Mrs. M. J. Pruitt which were sold Saturday afternoon brought fairly good prices. Mrs. Pruitt and son, Will, left Monday for Davenport, Iowa, their future home.

Miss Julia Turley of Cooper was a guest of friends in town Sunday.

SALT POND

We had a nice shower Friday morning and has been much cooler since.

Jeff Fisher was in Marshall last week on business.

Leola Garrison, Ruth and Marie Wheeland, Lottie Akeman, Ruth and Leona Norman spent Sunday evening with Lizzie Oaks.

Wellington Thompson was down a few days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald and family Mrs. Mary Harris and grandchildren spent Sunday with Louis VanBuskirk and family.

Misses Lulu and Audrey Wood are visiting their grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Stafford.

Quite a few from here attended the Cretcher picnic and all report a fine time.

Fackler-Parks

The announcement of the wedding of Miss Bessie Parks came as a great surprise to her many friends. She is one of Marshall's most handsome and popular young ladies, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Parks, of West Arrow.

She was married to C. B. Fackler, of Black Falls, Canada, at her home here Wednesday afternoon, July 26th. The groom is a young business man of high standing.

Miss Parks taught in the Nelson school last winter where she made many friends. They will make their home in Canada but expect to spend several months in Marshall.

$5.00 Round Trip

TO

CHICAGO

To witness the wonderful Aerial Flights of some of the World's Greatest Aviators

AT THE

International
Aviation Meet, August 12 to 20

Special Train

Leaves Marshall at 7:50 p. m., Friday, August 11th
Arrive CHICAGO 7:00 a. m., August 12th

VIA THE

CHICAGO & ALTON

Return Limit as late as Monday Night, August 14, 1911

For particulars see hand-bills, or
Apply to O. E. HAWTHORNE, Ticket Agent C. & A. R. R.
Marshall, Missouri